

Signs your cat is happy or content

Soft, almond-shaped or half-closed eyes and slow blinking when making eye contact

Rubbing against people, other pets and surfaces with their head or body

Kneading with their paws

Ears in a neutral position or slightly forward

Tail upright with a slight curl at the end (almost like a question mark)

Rolling onto their back

Soft facial expressions with relaxed body movements

Purring but only when accompanied by relaxed body language
